

Job Title: Victims of Crime Act (VOCA) Attorney

Location: Grand Junction, Colorado

Classification: Exempt

Reports To: Managing Attorney, Grand Junction Office

Salary Range: $ 61,422 - $ 103,011 (Commensurate with experience: $60,422 starting salary for law graduates who have not yet passed the bar)

Organization Overview:

Colorado Legal Services (CLS) is Colorado’s statewide nonprofit legal aid program, with thirteen offices providing civil legal assistance to low-income Coloradans throughout the state. CLS provides free legal assistance in a broad variety of legal areas, including family law, public benefits, eviction defense, consumer protection, services to survivors of serious crime and human trafficking, and many others.

CLS has strengthened lives, assisted families, and supported communities—one person at a time for over 90 years. We are committed to providing high-quality, free legal advice and representation to eligible individuals throughout Colorado. We have a long history of successful impact and advocacy. CLS strives to bring about substantive, transformational change in the lives of those we serve.

Position Summary:

The Victims of Crime Act (VOCA) Grant attorney will be housed in Colorado Legal Services’ Grand Junction Office but will be primarily responsible for cases in rural Delta and Montrose Counties, with some additional coverage in Garfield County (Glenwood Springs) and Mesa County (Grand Junction). The VOCA attorney will work under the supervision of the Managing Attorney of the Grand Junction Office. This position requires a candidate with strong work ethics, a background in family law and trial practice, as well as strong research and writing skills. The ideal candidate must be organized and have a passion for assisting individuals in navigating challenging situations. The ability to speak Spanish is a bonus.

The VOCA Grant attorney provides legal advice, brief services, and representation to clients who have experienced domestic abuse or other crimes of violence. In addition to their caseload, the attorney also conducts outreach, community education events and participates in various local Boards/committees. These efforts are guided and supervised by the Managing Attorney. In summary, the VOCA Attorney role presents an exciting opportunity for a dedicated and passionate law professional to make a significant impact on the lives of our vulnerable client populations.

As a member of a multidimensional team, the VOCA Attorney will contribute their expertise to achieve the best possible outcomes for clients. It is crucial that the ideal candidate remains up to date with the latest developments in family law and applies this knowledge to effectively support clients.

Highlight:

This is an excellent opportunity for outdoor enthusiasts such as skiers, snowboarders, mountain bikers, campers, and hikers. Grand Junction, located in Western Colorado, is 40 minutes from Powderhorn Mountain ski resort and only 1.45 hours from Aspen.
